Professional background

Dr Michael Hagan is a Consultant Psychiatrist with a particular interest in adult, young adult and adolescent psychiatry. He has a broad interest in the care of patients with psychiatric conditions including mood disorders, anxiety disorders, PTSD and ADHD, and assisting in the management of acute and chronic mental health challenges.

Since 1993, he has practiced in Western Australia (including at The Marian Centre) and in Queensland at Currumbin Clinic and Robina Private Hospital. Dr Hagan has been Director of Services for Addiction and Child and Adolescent Psychiatric Services and Medical Director of Robina Private Hospital. He holds a Diploma of Obstetrics, a Certificate in Child and Adolescence and is a member of the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists (RANZCP) and Member Faculty of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry (RANZCP).

Dr Hagan was most recently the Medical Director at Robina Private Hospital and played a critical role in the ongoing development of Robina's comprehensive range of private services and patient-centred care.

Dr Hagan accepts appointments and referrals for individuals aged 16 and over.
